CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Ben Helm, Danville, will re-enter the evangelistic field.

Bishop Charles McCabe was stricken with apoplexy in New York.

Rev. J. L. Yandle will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Brooks Brothers closed a revival at the First Christian church, Louisville, which resulted in 313 additions.

Epworth Leaguers, convinced of his innocence, have raised a fund to defend Anton Lambert, to be tried at Laporte, Ind., on a charge of murder. Lambert has a record, but recently professed conversion and denied a confession made at the time of his arrest.

The members of the First Baptist Church have determined to build a $7,000 parsonage. The matter was brought up before the congregation on last Sunday morning and $5,700 was raised there and then, which bespeaks for that church a beautiful parsonage.

Rev. L. J. Reynolds, one of the best known men in the Christian church in this section, after a life spent in the service of the Master, has decided to retire from active work, and this week made his last trip in his official capacity to this county. For many years he has had charge of several churches in this county, and is regarded with feelings of the deepest love and respect by his devoted parishioners.

Walter, of Lancaster, was here last week. J. L. Johnson has gone to Hood River, Ore., to spend the holidays with his family. Miss Mary Burton, of Somerset, is visiting her homefolks. Craig Butt and wife, who have been living in Somerset, have moved back to Kingsville. Virgil Bastin and wife and Mrs. George Rigney spent a few days in Cincinnati.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of Mr. E. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

"We're goin' ter have int'restin' services up to the church to-day," said the first farmer during a Kansas drought; "the parson's goin' ter pray fur rain."

So?" grunted the other. "Quite a crowd o' ye goin', ain't't that?"

"Yeh. We've got a deal o' faith in our minister."

"So? I ain't seen none o' ye carryin' umbrellas."

Public Speaker Interrupted

Public speakers are frequently interrupted by people coughing. This would not happen if Foley's Honey and Tar were taken, as it cures coughs and colds and prevents pneumonia and consumption. The genuine contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. Penny's Drug Store.

Wearry—I hear dat Rhodie was hurt right bad las' week. He jumped off a train goin' 40 miles an hour.

Dusty—Wot did he want to do dat fur?

Wearry—Why, he heard de conductor say dat it wuz goin' to Watertown.

W. C. Pettus is delivering corn in town at $2.

Bobbitt Mistakes Herzog's Home for Switzerland.

BERNE, SWITZERLAND, Dec. 10.—I arrived in this beautiful, rugged, wild, romantic country yesterday and I feel secure with the mailed tyrants of Europe all round me and Mount Sympion looming up grand and gloomy in front of me with a fleecy veil upon his stern, savage brow, and around whose sterile summit the bird just below the eagle is now performing its gyrations. How wildly grand! How sublimely beautiful! While here, isolated from the busy marts of men, I want to write two books: "The Law As It Is," and a history of the United States. They will speak a language never breathed by people before! East of me are such cultivated neighbors as Sampson, Morris, Jarvis, Lynn, Matheny, et al, while upon the mountain's lofty summit, Jim Carter, like the eagle, proudly sits in his eagle; Hale's Well hard by and the white cone of Sugar Loaf gleams cold and silent through the leafless trees. Here, not annoyed by clients, I can write 10 printed pages a day in each book. What a delightful place! Tall, grand, old-fashioned house, two stories high and an ell running back and two old-fashioned fire places and a good wood fire cheerfully burning! How luridly bright!

You notice I have not paid my taxes yet. I told the deputy that when I was a poor man I could and did pay, but now I owned so much real and personal property, I could not afford to pay. It took too much. But I had two $1,000 horses and a herd of good cattle at the "Barony" and to go out and help himself to such as he liked best. But he said they would have to send some one else. I told him not to be afraid; the Kennedys would treat him nicely if they did not kill him. That is the way we do. That is the way we have always done.

When I get an opportunity to stroll half a day through the woods, amid the Druidical oaks, I shall write again. I am still a Druid. I would, if I could, uproot all the railroads and re-root all the giant oaks that have been felled and go back to pristine glory and beauty.

FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT.

N. B.—Last night I passed all alone in my castle. I read 198 pages yesterday and last night, and though the windows rattled drearily I was not alarmed. There are some men and women too that I am afraid of, but a ghost is not one of them. When I was county attorney I prosecuted a man who afterwards died here, but he never thought ill of me for that, nor I of him. More anon.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Rev. W. S. Coakley, a student from Louisville, delivered excellent sermons at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.

Lynne Bros. have a beautiful selection of Santa Claus goods on display at the drug store; something to suit both the little and grown folks.

Leave your orders for the daily Louisville Post and the Kentucky Governor's Wall Chart, all for $3—six months $2, with Miss Hettie Harris. Out of town and rural route subscriptions solicited.

Mr. Spears Fisher and family, of Dripping Springs fame, will move to town Jan. 1 and open a new boarding house on Lancaster street. Mr. Harvey Foley bought the farm of his father, the late Andrew Foley, paying $27. There are 52 acres.

Mrs. Kittie King and family will leave soon for Birmingham, Ala., to make their home, much to the regret of their many friends. Mrs. Martha Fish is visiting her daughter, Mrs. David Newland. Miss Bettie Belden has returned from a week's visit to her parents at Shelby City. Miss Fannie Redd, who has been on a protracted visit to Louisville relatives, is at home again. Mrs. Sabra McClure has returned from a business trip to Danville. Rev. R. B. Mahony was here from Stanford a few days since. Will Brooks is with the homefolks for a short visit.

No Opium in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is not the least danger in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to small children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. It has an established reputation of more than 30 years as the most successful medicine in use for colds, croup and whooping cough. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by Stanford Drug Co.

From an authority that should be absolute John D. Rockefeller's annual income was told to day for the first time authentically. It will be $60,000,000 when the year 1906 closes.

All but one of the prisoners in the Whitesburg jail escaped in some manner which the remaining prisoner declines to tell.

MIDDLEBURG.

Thomas Gritton has moved to the James Wells farm one mile South of Yosemite.

Rev. J. R. Richardson, a highly respected citizen of the Willow Springs section, died Monday. He had been ill in health for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fiero, of Catkill, N. Y., parents of Mrs. H. M. Shouse, arrived Monday to spend the winter with their daughter.

Rev. Shouse has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church here to accept a call to the Fork church, near Marksburg, Garrard county. It is not known who will succeed him here. The church will take steps at once to secure a pastor.

Charley Sluder and a young man by the name of Royband were arrested at Yosemite charged with disturbing religious worship. There is a new religious sect lately sprung up on Knob Lick known as "Fitzwaterites" and they were holding services at M. F. Bastin's when the disturbance occurred.

William Burgin and wife, of Cincinnati, returned home Tuesday after a visit to the latter's sister, Mrs. Clel McAninch. Miss Lynn Hansford has returned from Liberty and in consequence thereof Dick is wearing a smile as big as a dish-pan. Big hearted Ed Sweeney, the popular grocery drummer, was here this week.

King of All Cough Medicines.

Mr. E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Conn., who has been in the U. S. Service for about 15 years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects." For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

The dispatches say that Chester Gillette spends his time in jail singing and dancing. Admitting, for the sake of argument, that he is not guilty of murder of his sweetheart, he might show enough sorrow over her death to keep him from such performances. A creature so devoid of feeling should, on general principles, be made to dance at the end of a rope or a wire.—Frankfort Journal.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For 20 years W. L. Rawls, of Bells, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at Penny's Drug Store and Lynne Bros.

Something About Oregon.

SIMNASHO, OREGON, Dec. 6.—Since leaving home last August I have been living in the far West. "Where rolls the Oregon and hears no sound save his own dashing." A little more than 100 years ago Lewis and Clark, led by the Indian woman, Sac-a-jawea, floated down the Columbia and thus laid the foundation for the exploration of the vast territory of the Northwest.

The journey by boat from the Dalles to Portland, Ore., is one never to be forgotten. At every bend in the river the scenery changes like the shifting scenes of a panorama. Along the shore in the lowlands it is summer. The air is heavy with the odor of wild rose and honey suckle. A little further up in the foot-hills there are great pines, hoary with age. When the lowly Nazarine was upon earth these same pines were upon guard as they are to-day.

Looking still further up, one beholds Mt. Hood and Mt. Adams, so tall and snow-clad that they resemble great white clouds reaching up into the heavens. By a mere shifting of the eye, the observer is transported from the land of summer into the regions of perpetual snow.

As our boat passes a mountainous cliff we catch the glint of a wondrous cataract which falls for a distance of 800 feet, four times further than famous Niagara.

But no artist's brush has ever caught the beauty and sublimity of the Columbia, which is larger and more beautiful than a dozen Rhines; neither can such a pen as mine describe it. Oregon is truly a great country, vast and undeveloped. The one great drawback is the lack of transportation facilities. The entire railroad system of the State is held in the iron grip of Harriman. Until he speaks the word, the State will remain undeveloped.

LUCIEN M. LEWIS.

MORELAND.

Varnon Wilkerson, one of our home boys, now agent for the L. & A. at Heidelberg, Ky., surprised his friends by bringing home a beautiful wife, who was a Miss Johnston, of Panola. His many friends here wish them a long and happy life.

Twenty-one hundred dollars' increase in business for the Q. & C. railroad at Moreland in the month of November as compared with the same month of 1905. The increase would have been double that amount if we could have furnished cars. Like other roads we are very scarce of cars. The coal famine was partly relieved last week by receiving two car-loads, which were "licked up" in a few hours.

Mrs. E. K. Shewmaker has returned from Lowry, Va., where she was visiting the family of George Ira Ford. She came very near being killed in an explosion which occurred about 30 minutes before she left the place. Every window in the house she was in was shattered and she was knocked down and covered with the debris. But for the delay of a little boy who was dressing to go with her to the depot, she would have been on a bridge at the time of the explosion and which was torn into kindling wood. She came home without a scratch but very nervous and says, "don't get me any more passes." Careless contractors caused the explosion by putting down blasts too near where a quantity of dynamite was stored and the whole thing went off, demolishing the depot and everything nearby. Mrs. S. could not ascertain whether or not any one was killed, as she left just after the explosion occurred, but saw a number of men with bloody faces and bleeding wounds.

A Texas Wonder.

There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of Consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure Cough and Cold cure. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store and Lynne Bros. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Greenup county went dry. In the separate town elections granted by County Judge Harden, who holds the County Unit Law unconstitutional, the town of Greenup went 19 wet. Springfield went 14 dry.

Gov. Luke P. Blackburn, whose reputation as a physician and philanthropist is too well known to need further comment, once said "Concentrated Crab Orchard Water is the best aperient known to the medical profession and will cure more diseases than any one remedy I have ever used." ACCORDING to the annual report of Secretary Taft, of the War Department, the actual strength of the regular army was 3,709 officers and 54,659 enlisted men in October. Yet there were but 368 deaths from all causes during the year, or six and a fraction to the thousand. Army life seems conducive to health, though it must be taken into consideration that none but young and healthy men are permitted to enlist. The death rate per thousand in cities runs from 15 to 25 persons.

SENATOR BAILEY is having the fight of his life for a return to the Senate from Texas. His enemies in the State are doing everything to encompass his defeat, and a representative from Texas has introduced a resolution, considered a slap at the Senator, providing for fine and imprisonment for any member of Congress who accepts money or office from corporations. We hope the Senator is wrongly accused, and further hope he will triumph over those who would destroy him.

REV. JOHN QUINCY MCANTER, of Philadelphia, was shot and probably fatally wounded by his daughter, who says she did the shooting unintentionally. Her neighbors tell a different story, however. They say that McAnter was drunk and trying to throw his wife into the cellar of their home when the daughter used the weapon.

DURING the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, 9,073 persons—passengers, employes and tramps—were killed on the railways of the United States and 86,008 injured. This terrific slaughter is inexcusable. The railroads are not using the safety appliances that are at hand if they would.

THE Republican papers are making much ado over Mr. Hearst's statement that his election expenses were a little over $250,000. As he paid it himself, it is nobody else's business, but where did the Republicans get that two millions it cost to elect Hughes?

THE Danville Advocate is evidently hard up for news when it devotes three or four inches to the death of a cat. The feline family must be short in Little Britain.

Congress at this session may limit the hours of railroad employes. It is understood the opposition to the enactment of this law is likely to be withdrawn by most of the railroads themselves.

A resolution, considered a slap at Senator Bailey, was introduced in the House by Representative Randell, providing for fine and imprisonment for any member of Congress who accepts money or office from corporations.

Owing to the condition of his health, it is believed that former Senator Cockrell will resign his place in the Interstate Commerce Commission before Jan. 1, and among those who have been mentioned to succeed him is Senator Blackburn.

In an obscure but picturesque little village of far off Germany there is a place called the "Chocolate Cure," where thin people go to become stout. The patients eat and drink cocoa and chocolate all the time while they rest, admire the scenery, gossip and grow fatter every day. The true secret of the great success of this treatment is the happy way chocolate has of fattening just the right places, setting in the hands, the arms, the neck and the shoulders, making the fair patient prettier and plumper all the time. The really effective part of this cure may be tried at home by any persevering woman, and the medicine is so palatable and the method so simple that there is actually, it seems, no reason why all should not be of just the desired weight.—London Chronicle.

THE YOUNG MAN,

Who desires to be smartly Dressed at a nominal cost

Should Buy His Clothes Here.

We don't ask young men to come here because their fathers did, nor for any other sentimental reasons. We offer them clothes that in character and value we know are impossible elsewhere at our prices. We maintain a standard of ALL-WOOL --others are significantly quiet on the subject. ALL-WOOL Clothes are better than cotton mixtures you are bound to know.

It is up to you what kind you want. If you prefer ALL-WOOL our store is the place, for our line of Hart, Schaffner & Marx make is the only line that is guaranteed to you strictly ALL-WOOL; no "Mercerized" or any other cotton mixtures in this goods. When you buy clothes ask if they are ALL-WOOL; get the assurance--our guarantee.

Our styles reflect the newest cut and fit; just what smart dressers want.

Inspect our stock; always a pleasant welcome for you.

WHITE. - Capt. Frank J. White, who used to set type on this paper, died at his home in Lancaster, after a protracted illness, aged 88. He was born in Madison county in 1820, and went into a printing office in Richmond when only nine years of age. He came to Lancaster in 1847, remained several years, and then moved to Somerset, where he resided till the close of the Civil War, when he again moved to Garrard's capital. Capt. White went through the Mexican War in Company G., Col. Humphrey Marshall's command, and was the only remaining Garrard veteran of the conflict of 47. The last year of the venerable captain's life, was one of unusual sadness, as in that time he has lost not only his wife, but also a son and daughter. He was a kind-hearted, gallant old gentleman and the many friends he made during his sojourn here will learn with regret of his demise.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of little Truman Elmore, who was taken from us Sunday morning, Oct. 14. The death angel came and took from us our little darling we loved so much. These mysteries are hard to understand, but God knows best and does all things well. The bible tells us that where our treasures are, there our hearts are also; and when we have treasures in heaven our hearts go there so often. Jesus said: "Suffer little children to come unto Me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." I have a little angel

Far above the dark blue skies, She is just as sweet as ever With golden hair and dark blue eyes.

Tw'as hard, so hard to have to part, It seems to almost break each heart; But God in wisdom knoweth best, And so He took her home to rest.

She was only 15 months of age, It seems that I can read each page; Her life was short and mostly pain, Till God took her and made heaven her gain.

Our home is often lonesome and sad, But Jesus comforts and makes us glad; There are so many sweet promises in his word That it seems that one is always heard.

I know she must be happy there For Jesus took her in his care; Oh, if it were in my power I wouldn't call her back, not for an hour.

We gather up garments and place them with loving care, 'Tis sad to think that these no more she'll wear, But God knew best and took her in His care And now she's in heaven so bright and so fair.

Given Up To Die

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind. writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking these second bottle I was entirely cured." Penny's Drug Store.

Dealers say that those who have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are quite loyal to them and can not be persuaded to take any substitute. Get free sample at Stanford Drug Co., give them a trial and you, too, will want them in preference to any other. They cure stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation.

Outwits The Surgeon.

A complication of female troubles, with catarrh of the stomach and bowels, had reduced Mrs. Thos. S. Austin, of Leavenworth, Ind., to such a deplorable condition, that her doctor advised an operation; but her husband fearing fatal results, postponed this to try Electric Bitters; and to the amazement of all who knew her, this medicine completely cured her. Guaranteed cure for torpid liver, kidney disease, biliousness, jaundice, chills and fever, general debility, nervousness, and blood poisoning. Best tonic made. Price 50c at Penny's Drug Store and Lyne Bros. Try it.

In upholding the jurisdiction of the Oldham circuit court in cases involving violations of the Sunday law, the court of appeals sustains what is believed to be the contention of those interested in putting on "the lid" in the cities in Kentucky. The L. & N. Railroad was fined for working men on Sunday.

Danger In Asking Advice

When you have a cough or cold do not ask some one what is good for it, as there is danger in taking some unknown preparation. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs, colds and prevents pneumonia. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Penny's Drug Store.
